Kennedy Takes Giant Step to Nomination

By ARTHUR EDSON

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) took a giant stride toward the Democratic presidential nomination today with a smashing victory in the West Virginia primary.

He not only rolled over Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) but also knocked him out of the presidential race completely.

At 1:08 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time) Humphrey conceded. Moments later he issued a statement in which he said:

"I am no longer a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination."

Kennedy flew back from Washington early today.

West Virginia has tonight given me a major boost toward the Democratic nomination for president," he said jubilantly.

Kennedy, a Catholic running in a predominantly Protestant state, thanked the voters.

"I had no doubt," he said, "that you would cast your vote on the basis of the issues and not on any religious prejudice."

Kennedy jumped ahead at the start and steadily increased his margin.

With 1,433 of 2,750 precincts reporting, the scorecard looked like this:

Kennedy 117,446
Humphrey 77,889

The Kennedy victory wasn't entirely unexpected, but the size of it certainly was.

A few observers had thought that Kennedy might take a closer thing here. But usually the guess was that it would be close, with the edge, if any, going to Humphrey, a Congregationalist.

Although the victory meant a lot to Kennedy—it should be a powerful argument to advance against the theory that no Catholic can be elected president—it didn't guarantee him a single extra delegate to the convention.

This was strictly a popularity contest. The delegates who will cast 25 votes at the Democratic convention in July are free to do as they please.

Weather

Experiment Station report for 24-hours ending at 6 p. m. (Tues.): High 77, Low 50; Trace of precipitation; Total 1960 precipitation through April, 14 inches; during the same period a year ago, 13.99 inches.

ARKANSAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Thursday with a few showers mainly in north portion tonight, no important temperature changes. Highest this afternoon in 60s north and 70s south, lowest tonight 35-45 north with a few spots of frost extreme north portion and 40-50 elsewhere; highest Thursday afternoon 60 north and 70s south.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The temperature dropped to 34 at Gilbert and Batesville in north Arkansas early today. And more cool weather is in prospect for the state.

Other Arkansas lows ranged up to 54 at Texarkana. Little Rock's 44 equaled a May 11 record low in 1924.

Weathermen said lows tonight will hover between 35 and 45 in the north to the 50s elsewhere. A few spots of frost are expected in extreme north Arkansas tonight.

Continued cool readings are forecast through Monday afternoon.

Bear Killed by Truck at Trumman

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP)—A young bear was killed by a pickup truck near here last night.

Apparently it was one of the cubs which with its mother and another cub had been seen previously in this area.

Orvis Brock said the bear emerged from the woods a few miles south of Trumman into the path of Brock's truck. Brock said he didn't see any other bears.

A mother bear and two cubs spent Monday night in a tree at Bay, Craighead County. Yesterday three bears, believed to be the same ones, spent several hours in a tree on a farm not far from where the bear later was killed.

Three Cities Approve Bond Issues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters in three Arkansas cities approved bond issues yesterday. A $460,000 water and sewer bond issue was passed in Pochontas, a $200,000 hospital improvement issue was approved in Stuttgart, and a $400,000 industrial bond issue was passed in Monette.

The Pochontas bonds will finance construction of a new sewage disposal plant and extension of water and sewer facilities to a proposed industrial site and a newly annexed area.

A 29-room addition is expected to be built to Stuttgart's $550,000 hospital, which opened in 1957. Of the bond issue, $60,000 will go to refund outstanding bonds. The rest will be put with $208,000 in federal Hill-Burton aid to finance the $400,000 improvement program.

Monette has no industry in mind for its industrial bonds. Mayor Norman Blankenship said, but voted the funds "to be ready" for a prospect. He said the money won't be spent until an industry agrees to locate in the town.

Segregation Group to Bar Press

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Pine Bluff Citizens Council voted last night to bar members of the press from future meetings of the segregationist group.

Fred Middleton, a reporter for the Pine Bluff Commercial, was asked to leave shortly after the start of a regular meeting.

The vote to bar the press was 13-1, with 10 of the 24 persons present not voting.

L. D. Poynter, president of the organization, read aloud a letter which referred to the Commercial as "the Pine Bluff Evening Error." Poynter did not identify the writer.

There was a lot of comment from members of the audience. One speaker said reporters who attend council meetings "must confer with Khushchev before they can come," and added:

"If it was a nigger meeting, they would have two or three men here."

Others said the council could not get advertisements in the Commercial.

The newspaper had carried a paid notice about the council meeting in Monday's editions.

One man said the Commercial should not have "the privilege to carry our advertisements."

The reporter did not recognize the man who made the motion to bar newsmen, nor the lone dissenter.

General charges were made that Commercial newsmen were left-wingers.

There was one suggestion for the council to sponsor a boycott of all newspapers.

"The niggers can boycott the stores—why can't we boycott the papers?" asked an unidentified man.

Critics of the Commercial did not single out any particular newsmen, but one speaker said "it looks like we have another Harry Ashmore sitting down there at the paper."

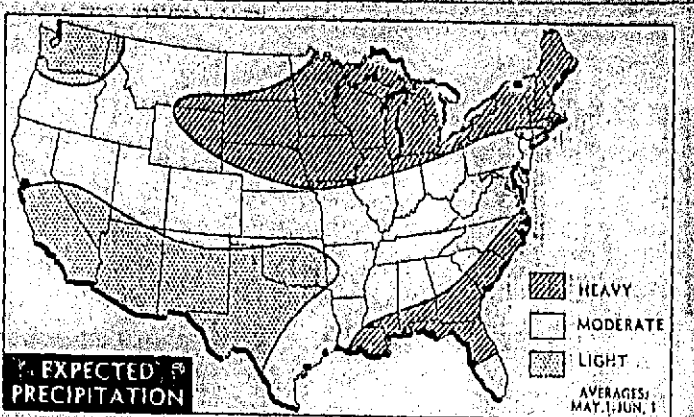

Ashmore is a former editor of the Arkansas Gazette.

The Commercial made no comment on the council's action.

Spencer Re-elected to ArkLa Board

SHREVEPORT—Lloyd Spencer, president of the First National Bank of Hope, was re-elected a member of the Board of Directors of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. at the annual meeting of stockholders of the company here yesterday.

Mr. Spencer was first elected to the board in January, 1955, and has been re-elected annually since that time.

Our rainfall will vary from heavy through moderate, into light from far north to far south through the next month.

Weather Bureau's forecast for the next month is a cool one. Much of the country's temperatures will be below normal.

Virginia Vote Blow to Other Candidates

By JACK BELL

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy's thundering victory in this state has vastly increased the momentum of his drive for the Democratic presidential nomination.

For one thing it has given him a counter-argument to use against those who say a Roman Catholic cannot win the presidency.

Kennedy has put other aspirants for the Democratic nomination in a deep hole. He has put the squeeze on heads of big convention delegations who have been holding out against him on the principal grounds that a man of his faith couldn't win in November.

He has, in other words, got his convention handwagon rolling at top speed. It will be difficult for his major rivals, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), to stop it.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who called Kennedy's West Virginia triumph in advance, already has given notice he plans to begin campaigning at once, as if he and the Massachusetts senator already were the rival presidential nominees.

Nothing could have been more convincing to the politicians than the way Kennedy mopped up in every section of West Virginia in carrying 60 per cent of the total vote.

His followers had been voicing their doubts that he could win in a state with a population only 4.5 per cent Catholic. Moreover, they had contended his country fundamentalism made West Virginia more vigorously Protestant than almost any other state.

But it wasn't that way at all. Kennedy won almost everywhere. And the few counties that gave Humphrey majorities were no less overwhelmingly Protestant than those that swamped him.

Humphrey didn't say where he will urge his unhorsed delegates representing 34½ convention votes to go. But the general expectation was that some of them and some of his active backers may seek a home with Adlai E. Stevenson.

Stevenson has said he isn't running and doesn't expect to be drafted. But unless he should announce his support of Kennedy or some other aspirant, he still will be viewed as a possibility.

Appeal for 5 Negroes Is Granted

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Circuit Judge William J. Kirby has granted an appeal to the state Supreme Court by five Negro students convicted in the first "sit-in" protest of lunch counter segregation here.

Kirby yesterday denied a motion for a new trial for the students. They were convicted of violating a 1959 law against any peace disturbance in a business place.

Attorneys for the Negroes have said they intend to challenge the act's constitutionality.

The students were fined $250 and sentenced to 30 days in jail in municipal court. On appeal to circuit court, Kirby doubled the fines and jail terms.

The students, arrested March 10 during a demonstration at the F. W. Woolworth store, are Chester Briggs, 18, of Hot Springs; Vernon Mott, 19, of Little Rock; Charles Parker, 22, of St. Louis; Frank James, 21, of Oklahoma City, and Eldridge Davis, 19, of Malvern.

Spa to Vote on Industrial Bonds

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A $2½ million dollar industrial bond issue goes before Hot Springs voters today.

At stake is construction of a plant for National Rejects, Inc., a subsidiary of Universal Match Co.

The bond issue is proposed under a new industrial financing act passed in January by a special legislative session.

General's Dog Missing

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP)—Gen. James Van Fleet's interregional famous dog, Happy, is missing.

The dog was a gift to the retired general from Syngman Rhee, the recently ousted president of Korea.

U. S. Economy Passes Half Trillion Mark

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today announced that the nation's economy has passed the half-trillion-dollar mark for the first time in history.

The President also disclosed at his news conference that employment last month scored the biggest April gain since World War II.

Reading from notes, Eisenhower took advantage of a question about housing legislation to discuss the economic picture which has been causing puzzlement and concern in many quarters since the first of the year.

Eisenhower said employment increased by 1,900,000 in April to 66,200,000.

He said unemployment dropped sharply—falling by more than half a million.

Detailed figures on the job picture were to be announced later by the Labor Department.

Eisenhower's disclosure of the favorable employment report, it was learned on reliable authority, was pushed up a day to give the President something good to announce amid all the criticism of the handling of the American spy flight over Russia.

The government had planned to announce the new job figures Thursday. The job data is rarely handled out of the White House.

Graduation Plans at Emmet School

The Baccalaureate Service for the Emmet High School Senior Class will be in the Emmet Methodist Church, Sunday May 15 at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. William R. Woodell, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Prescott, will deliver the sermon.

Commencement Exercises will be at the Emmet High School, Friday night May 20 at 8 o'clock. Miss Juanita Dougan will give the salutatory and Miss Polly Graham the valedictory. Earl Downs, Counselor at Hope High School, will deliver the commencement address.

Farm Union Organized in County

Lester Made of Blovins, was named temporary chairman for the Farmers Union in Hempstead county at an organization meeting held Tuesday night at McCaskill.

Arthur M. Wimmell and Mrs. Gordon Prescott, both of McCaskill, were named vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

L. J. Bryson of Prescott, state president of the Farmers Union, and Louis Johnson, state executive secretary, were the principal speakers. Both stressed the Farmers Union's program on behalf of family-operated farms.

A countywide fish fry is planned for the near future at which time permanent officers will be elected for the county Farmers Union.

All-Day Services at Old Liberty

All day singing services and dinner on the ground will be held Sunday, June 5, at Old Liberty Church. Visitors are asked to bring a lunch which will be spread at noon.

President Says Plane Case Unfortunate But Very Necessary

Russia Hints May Ask Ike to Forget Visit

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today the spy plane incident had changed his estimate of President Eisenhower and they will discuss in Paris whether the American leader should come to Moscow as planned.

He made the statement as he stood on a wicker chair talking to correspondents amidst the wreckage of the American plane he claims was shot down May 1 east of the Urals.

One of the newsmen asked him point blank: "Do you want Eisenhower to come here in view of the plane incident?"

"What do you want me to say?" Khrushchev asked. "You get in to my place here and reply for me."

An American correspondent then asked whether, in view of his changed attitude toward Eisenhower, he would want him to postpone the visit to the Soviet Union now scheduled for June 10.

"I would not like to comment," the Premier said. "We can exchange views with the President on that in Paris."

He announced he is leaving Saturday for the summit conference in Paris opening May 16.

The Soviet Union denounced the flight, by Francis G. Powers, as an act of aggression and put what they said was his equipment, documents and photographs on display in Gorki Park.

Foreign Minister Andrei I. Gromyko declared in a news conference that the United States was playing with fire and "one of the most dangerous forms of brinkmanship" in sending its planes over Soviet territory.

Gromyko condemned President Eisenhower's open skies plan, first advanced at the Geneva summit conference of 1955, as serving the interests of American military intelligence. He said the Russians naturally could not accept it.

The sky over the Soviet Union is closed, Gromyko said, and will remain closed.

At a news conference in Washington, Eisenhower said he will renew at next week's summit meeting his proposal that the Soviet Union and the United States open their skies to flights by inspection planes.

Gromyko said newsmen would be allowed to see Powers only after the Soviet investigation has been completed.

Gromyko denounced Powers' May Day flight, which ended with his capture as a parachutist in the Sverdlovsk region, as a banditlike provocation and a criminal act.

The foreign minister declared that any aircraft which "again dare to make a sortie into our borders" will be smashed to smithereens. He reiterated that buses of nations used for espionage flights over Soviet territory will be obliterated.

Among the items displayed in the Gorki Park exhibit was a hypodermic needle which Khrushchev said Powers carried. The in this country Eisenhower said Premier told Parliament last he didn't know whether it had or not. MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has charged the U.S. government—and not its military commanders alone—with responsibility for American spy flights over Soviet soil and indicated that U.S. spy pilot Francis G. Powers may stand trial for espionage.

Moscow Radio today followed up the protest note to Washington with a strong hint that further U.S. flights over the Soviet Union might trigger a Soviet bomb attack on the United States.

A broadcast beamed to North America recalled that Washington had repeatedly announced that at the first sign of enemy planes approaching the United States, American bombers would be ordered to deliver a return blow.

"Why then shouldn't the U.S.S.R. do likewise when it finds a U.S. plane in its territory?" the commentator demanded.

The United States meanwhile requested permission for a U.S. Embassy officer to interview Powers, 30-year-old former Air Force pilot.

U. S. Plans to Renew an Old Proposal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Eisenhower said today he will renew his 1955 proposal—rejected then by Moscow—that the United States and Soviet Union open their skies to flights by inspection planes.

He gave these comments and reports on other matters at a news conference.

ECONOMY—For the first time goods and services is running at its history, U.S. production of the rate of half a trillion dollars a year. Employment increased by 1,900,000 from mid-March to mid-April, bringing the total number of employed to 66,200,000. Unemployment fell by more than half a million.

NIXON—Despite criticism of the idea by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Eisenhower is standing pat on his plans for Vice President Richard M. Nixon to take his place at the Paris summit meeting if domestic requirements make it necessary for the President to return to this country before the conference ends.

POLITICS—A reporter wanted to know whether Eisenhower would agree that the victory of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, a Roman Catholic, in the West Virginia primary had buried the religious issue once and for all.

In this country Eisenhower said Premier told Parliament last he didn't know whether it had or not. But he said that he previously had deplored interjection of the lure, but "living things want to go on living."

Challenges Russia to Open Sky Inspection

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower challenged the Soviet Union again today to join this country in opening its skies to inspection flights which might give each assurance against surprise attack.

In a news conference review of the furor over Russian capture of an American spy plane, the President called espionage "a distasteful but vital necessity" lest there be another sneak blow such as the 1941 Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Eisenhower said the Soviet "fetish of secrecy and concealment" is a major cause of international tension and uneasiness, and forces the United States to engage in "below the surface" activities to gain information to protect the Free World.

"We prefer and work for a different kind of world—and a different way of obtaining the information essential to confidence and effective deterrence," he said.

"Open societies, in the day of present weapons, are the only answer."

"This was the reason for my 'open skies' proposal in 1955, which I was ready instantly to put into effect—to permit aerial observation over the United States and the Soviet Union which would assure that no surprise attack was being prepared against any one."

"I shall bring up the 'open skies' proposal again at Paris—since it is a means of ending concealment and suspicion."

Eisenhower read a prepared statement to a packed news conference on the matter. Among other points, he:

1. Expressed doubt the American U2 spy plane was in fact shot down from 80,000 feet as the Russians claim.

2. Denied there was anything provocative about actions of the United States and its allies in relation to Russia.

Despite the furor caused by the U2 plane episode, Eisenhower said he still is hopeful "that we may make progress" at the summit conference, starting Monday, on what he called the great issues of the day.

The Western Big Three and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev meet at Paris to seek ways of easing East-West tensions.

Eisenhower said he still is hopeful—despite the furor over the plane incident—that the Paris summit meeting starting Monday will accomplish some good and help ease international tensions.

At the start of the news conference, Eisenhower read a prepared statement dealing with the American U2 plane which the Russians claim to have shot down.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 51

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and, that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and, financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and, such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do all and things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents of the district for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this

State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election. Whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies heretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds (unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for).

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election; and, upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose by the County Judge. No school district may issue bonds unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same; and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which the area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house of the General Assembly, the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

SECTION 13. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after the date of its approval at the November, 1959, General Election.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 52

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of liberty and bulwark of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy that Arkansas shall ever provide financial aid whereby all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and, that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declared policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and, financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and, such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do all and things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents of the district for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

SECTION 5. There is hereby levied and there shall be collected an annual per capita tax of one dollar from each resident of this

State over the age of twenty-one years, and the proceeds thereof shall be used for educational purposes in such manner as is now or as hereafter may be provided by law.

SECTION 6. Not less than fifteen days next preceding each annual school election, the board of directors of each school district shall prepare, approve and make public a proposed budget of expenditures in which there shall be set forth the amount of funds determined by the board as being necessary to provide, during the next following fiscal year, gratuitous instruction for residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years. The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, buildings and other property owned by the district; and (d), in such detail as the board shall determine, the estimated amount of funds required for other educational purposes. From the total of the aforementioned requirements for the fiscal year shall be deducted the estimated amount of funds to be available to the district from State aid and from all other sources other than the local property tax, and the remainder as so determined shall be designated and known as the budget deficit. Based upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the territorial bounds of the district for the then current year, the board of directors shall determine the rate of tax levy necessary to provide, when applied to the amount of said assessed valuation, funds of sufficient amount to meet the aforesaid budget deficit; and the rate of tax levy as so determined shall be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors of the district at the next following annual school election. Whenever, at any annual school election, a majority of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition shall approve the rate of tax levy proposed by the board of directors, then taxes shall be collected at the rate so approved. In the event the rate shall not be approved at any such election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies heretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds (unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for).

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election; and, upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose by the County Judge. No school district may issue bonds unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same; and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes upon taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which the area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 9. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house of the General Assembly, the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit the power of the General Assembly to submit proposed amendments to this measure as provided by Section 22 of Article 19 of the Constitution of this State.

SECTION 10. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 11. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

SECTION 13. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after the date of its approval at the November, 1959, General Election.

BLAZE OF SUNLIGHT BY FAITH BALDWIN

Under the watchful care of doctors and nurses, they left her, and as they were leaving, Steve promised, "I'll get up to see you."

Karen said, "Rose—"

Rose turned at the door. And Karen went on, not looking at her. "All right... you can tell Pete. But I won't see him; I can't."

"You needn't," Steve said gently, "as long as he knows."

In his car he asked Rose, "What made her change like that?"

"I don't know... Yes, maybe I do. She's lonely. And we were leaving her to strangers."

"Is that enough? Apparently she's been galloping all over civilization since she left him."

"I think she was always lonely," Rose said.

She thought: Loneliness is a spectre; loneliness sits with you at a table, beside your bed and walks with you on country roads; it watches you at a party. You have to learn to live with it.

"What are you thinking about?" Steve asked.

"Loneliness." She turned a little, and looked at him. "I thought—mine was the worst. It isn't, Steve."

"Why?"

She said, "I have someone, something to be lonely for—hundreds of things to be lonely for: she hasn't."

After a moment he asked, "Who's going to tell Jackson?"

"Dave. I think. Then, I suppose Pete will call you, then he'll come to see me. I don't look forward to it."

She telephoned Dave when she reached home and then waited. Pete: she didn't think he would call her, and she was right.

He drove in shortly after she had finished dinner and had refused to go over to the Baileys. They hadn't seen her for several days; they said they missed her. Pete said very little; he didn't ask questions because he had talked at length to Steve. He'd go to see him, he said, in a day or so.

She told me, why did you marry her in the first place?"

"I couldn't help it," he said suddenly.

Rose said nothing; and after a moment, he said angrily, "I gave her everything."

"Oh sure, I've heard you say that before, including your name. You merely omitted love."

"If I hadn't loved her, I wouldn't have married her."

"Love is trust," Rose said. Now he sat down and said almost in a dully, "I forgave her—"

"For what?" asked Rose. "For something which happened before she knew you were on earth? I daresay you forgive her every day of your lives by implication; and it destroyed her."

"If Mark had had a mistress—" he stopped. If the remark hadn't been so serious, it would have been funny; Mark scrapping along on the law-firm pittance, before—and after—he married Rose.

She said soberly: "I would have been hurt, jealous, too, of a time I hadn't shared with him. But it would have been his life—before I entered into it. If that's what you mean."

He asked, "How could I trust her?"

"Why not? I'm perfectly sure you had—interests—before Karen."

"That's different."

"Oh, of course," said Rose. "The old double standard that most people think died and was buried with Victoria!"

He said, "But—she was in Italy. Dave told me she was in Italy. . . . You can't tell me she didn't go to be with—that man."

"He's old," Rose said, "and, I believe, kind. That was all. Someone who knew her and who had, at his late date, no accusations to make, and had once been fond of her. She wasn't Karen Jackson; she was Carrie Howard, looking for kindness and a little warmth in the sun."

After a while he asked, "What am I to do now? Dave and Steve Jennings say she refuses to see me."

"Perhaps she'd rather you didn't see her," Rose said carefully. "Don't do anything. . . . No, you might write her, she'll read the letters—after a while."

"What kind of letters?" he asked helplessly.

Translator Converts Russian Fast

WASHINGTON (AP)—An electronic translator capable of converting Russian into English at the rate of 35 words a second has been developed by the Air Force, Rep. Overton Brooks (D-La.) said today.

Brooks is chairman of the House Science and Astronautics Committee, which has scheduled hearings starting Wednesday on mechanical translation devices.

"The translation is done at very high speeds," Brooks said, "1,000 words a minute being scanned by the translator. It can be operated by an individual with no knowledge of Russian and is able to translate a page of Russian into English in half a minute, compared to 45 minutes required by the average human translator."

Brooks said the machine will make available to American scientists and engineers more of the estimated billion words a year which the Soviets publish, one-third of which is in scientific fields. At present, he said, the U.S. government translates 80 million words a year at an average cost of two cents a word.

LA PUENTE, Calif. (AP)—They broke ground for a new church—and struck money.

The site of the Glengrove Assembly of God congregation's new church, it turned out, was a five-acre grove of buried treasure—almost $500.

It started last February when a bulldozer blade tipped over an old orange tree, and uprooted a mason jar. Three children following the bulldozer pounced on it. Inside was $3,840 in currency and coins.

A few days later another searcher found another jar containing $300.

The congregation then held an impromptu treasure hunt—and, in two days, found eight jars containing $850.

"Now," said Arthur Jensen, secretary of the congregation, "we're just waiting to find out if we can keep it."

The church, it seems, can lay claim to the $850 found by members of the congregation. And the other finders, including the children's parents, are claiming the remainder, neither the children nor their parents are members of the church.

"The daughter of the previous owner of the land also has claimed it," said Jensen. "She says it was buried by her father."

The sheriff's office has advised all claimants who hold money found in the lot to do just that—hold it. The congregation's $850, earmarked for the building fund, is in a safe deposit box.

Ike to Visit Japan, Korea as Planned

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will visit Japan and Korea next month as scheduled regardless of whether he cancels plans to go to the Soviet Union, the White House said today.

"That's firm," the associate press secretary, Anne Whentton, said in making public a preliminary schedule of the President's activities in Tokyo June 18-23.

Preparations still are going forward for the Soviet tour, she said in reply to newsmen's questions. She said representatives of the two governments are "constantly in consultation" on details.

The Tokyo schedule includes visits and state dinners with Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nakako, a round of sightseeing and a golf match with Prime Minister Kishi.

The schedule also indicates that Mrs. Eisenhower still is planning to accompany the President to Japan and Korea, as well as to the Soviet Union if that visit remains in the picture.

The White House said, for example, that Eisenhower and his wife will be hosts to the Emperor and Empress at a dinner in Tokyo June 21.

Eisenhower will arrive in Tokyo the afternoon of June 19. He will be met at Hanoi Airport by the Emperor and his wife, and then will drive with them to the Imperial Palace. After a brief visit there the President will go to the U.S. Embassy residence, his headquarters during the Tokyo visit.

The next day Eisenhower will receive the prime minister and also visit Japan's Diet (Parliament). If he follows his usual custom abroad, the President also will address the Diet members.

from an altitude in excess of 60,000 feet.

In his statement, the President spoke of discrepancies in the Soviet account of shooting down the plane and capture of the American pilot, Francis G. Powers.

Explaining, Eisenhower said there is "some reason to believe that the plane was not shot down at high altitude."

In response to a request for elaboration about his mention of discrepancies in the Soviet account, Eisenhower referred to the photographs which the Russians released as pictures of the wreckage of the plane.

This government, Eisenhower said, believes that the pictures produced by the Russians are not actually photographs of the U2.

After he read his prepared statement, Eisenhower said he would have nothing further to say regarding the plane episode. But about a dozen questions were asked which dealt with at least the fringe of the episode, and he replied to all.

For example, he was reminded that he has said many times that he would not go to a summit conference under the circumstances of any Soviet threat or ultimatum. A newsman noted that the Soviet government Tuesday threatened to retaliate against the United States if it continued to send spy planes over Russia.

Asked whether he regarded that as a threat in the category he had mentioned previously in relation to the summit meeting, Eisenhower replied that he did not. That particular threat, he went on, belongs in a special category and should not be regarded as an ultimatum.

In his prepared statement, Eisenhower touched on these points: The need for intelligence-collection activities, the nature of these activities, how should we view them and that the United States must not be distracted from the current real problems of the world.

On the point of need for intelligence, Eisenhower said no one wants another Pearl Harbor. This country, he went on, needs to have knowledge that will protect the nation's security.

The President said the Soviets make a "fetish of secrecy and concealment," and that this is a major cause of international tension today.

He spoke of gathering intelligence as a war deterrent. As for the nature of intelligence activities, they are of a special and secret character, he said. Such activities are intended to protect a nation's own military establishment, but at the same time are activities divorced from the military establishment.

We do not use the Army, Navy or Air Force in this intelligence-seeking program, the President said. It was at this point that Eisenhower spoke of discrepancies in the Soviet account of what happened to the American U2 plane, and voiced doubt that the aircraft was in fact shot down from a high altitude.

The President said espionage activities are distasteful but vital to the safety of nations conducting them. He recalled that at the 1955 Geneva summit conference the United States proposed a policy of "open skies"—mutual inspection from the air—but Russia rejected that proposal.

Governor's Race Quiets Down Some

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas governor's race quieted down today after a turn to international issues yesterday.

Two candidates took exception to Gov. Orval E. Faubus' views on the incident of a U.S. spy plane shot down over Russia.

Faubus himself declined to talk to newsmen about opponent's charges that the state's declining population reflected on his administration.

He said he favored allowing 18-year-olds to vote and added, "As far as I'm concerned every citizen is entitled to vote and should vote."

Mrs. W. B. Mason had as weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gardner of Wynne.

Mrs. S. A. Whitlow of Little Rock is visiting the Jewel Moore Jr. family in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cogbill went to Little Rock this weekend to see Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hembree, Mr. and Mrs. James Hembree and Jud Hembree and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaddox of Texarkana were here on Mothers' Day visiting Mrs. Clifford Franks.

The Glen Williams family of Little Rock and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bandy of DeQueen were luncheon guests Sunday of Misses Marie and Nannie Perkins and Mrs. Glen L. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Camp and Sue and Conway Carrigan III, all of Little Rock were also visitors.

Mrs. Buster Rogers and children of Foreman were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton.

Byers - Wiggins Nuptials Held

Sherley Byers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Byers of Chesapeake, Ontario and Ralph Wiggins, son of Mrs. J. H. Wiggins and the late Mr. Wiggins of Hope, Arkansas, were united in marriage by Rev. Dean Coombs in a ceremony held in the Gieger Field Chapel in Spokane, Washington, April 2.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace and over tulle and carried a bouquet of tuffed cornations surrounding a white orchid.

Hazel Byers of San Francisco, maid of honor and sister of the bride, wore a gown of blue silk organza with blue and white accessories.

After a reception at the Desert Caravan Inn the couple left for a trip to California. They will make their home in Spokane where Mr. Wiggins is stationed at Fairchild Air Force Base and over tulle and carried a bouquet of tuffed cornations surrounding a white orchid.

Connie Belle Harvey A PRESCOTT ENTRY IN Poultry Festival beauty contest scheduled here June 17, is Miss Connie Belle Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harvey of Prescott. The 5' 5", 120 pound beauty measures 35-23-37.

He said that included Negroes. The plane incident comments came from H.E. Williams of Walnut Ridge and Joe C. Hardin of Grady.

Williams picked on a statement by Faubus that "I know how the American people would feel if a Russian plane was shot down spy-ing over our country." He felt this indicated Faubus might be showing "some feeling of sympathy" for the Russians.

Hardin charged that Faubus' comments on the plane incident were an attempt to divert voters' attention from the state race.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett added no new statements to his growing list of charges against the Faubus administration and the fifth candidate, Hal Millsap of Silvan Springs, also was silent.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé are 1960 graduates of Laneburg High School.

Won't Seek Office

THIENPOLIS, Wyo. (AP) — Monday he will not seek re-election this year, O'Malley said. (D-Wyo.) notified party leaders.

No Sympathy for Reds, Says Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he has no sympathy for communism at all, and that his opposition in the governor's race had no foundation for implying anything to the contrary.

Faubus made the statement in commenting on a charge by H.E. Williams, one of his four opponents.

Williams had said a remark by Faubus about the American spy plane incident indicated the governor might be showing some sympathy for the Russians.

The opposing candidate quoted Faubus as saying he knew how Americans would feel if a Russian spy plane was shot down in this country.

"I am probably one of the least sympathetic people to the Communist cause that could be found," Faubus said of the Williams charge.

Joe C. Hardin, another Faubus opponent, had contended that Faubus' remarks about the plane incident were a smokescreen to divert voters' attention from the gubernatorial race.

Faubus dismissed the subject with this: "I think my opposition is just groping for something to say."

On other topics, Faubus said the victory of Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass) in the West Virginia voting yesterday might be the start of a trend narrowing Democratic presidential contenders.

He said the field of possible nominees might shrink to Kennedy, Adlai Stevenson and Sens. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) and Stuart Symington (D-Mo.).

Faubus previously has said he thought Arkansas and the South favored Johnson. He reiterated that he still believes Johnson has a chance for the nomination.

Earlier, Faubus had declined to speculate about charges by opponents in the governor's race that Arkansas' declining population reflected on his administration.

It Really Made a Good Road

DETROIT (AP) — Cliff R. Aderhold says he was driving away from Detroit Metropolitan Airport when his wife told him to "take this cutoff right here" to get onto the expressway.

Aderhold, 40, cut and when he saw the wide expanse of concrete before him he stepped on the gas. He was doing about 70 when the police pulled him to a halt.

Seems Mrs. Aderhold's instructions led the car onto the airport's main runway. In the next 20 minutes four airliners were unable to land and three others weren't able to take off.

Aderhold pleaded innocent to drunken driving charges Tuesday.

Girls Convicted of Drowning Monkey

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Five coeds from San Francisco State College were convicted Tuesday of drowning a spider monkey at Fleishacker Zoo.

Municipal Judge Lenore Underwood sentenced them to spend Saturdays working for the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Carol Coggin, 18; Joanne Pomerantz, 19; Peggy Thorne, 18; Lorelei Brede, 18; and Darlene O'Donnell, 18, were arrested the night of April 6 at a moat-circled monkey island after the zoo was closed.

One of the girls told investigators the venture followed a rain-out sorority beach party.

DOROTHY DIX

Right to Love for Love's Sake?

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a widow 38 years old and have two daughters. I met a Marine in September. He is 34, is the difference in age too great? He is divorced and has three kids, now with his wife. He divorced while on Okinawa. He said, "No, or again."

"Last Christmas he told me he loved me. Two or three weeks ago he said he could never ask me to marry him because of financial strain. He said I deserved someone better able to care for me. He is leaving for two months duty in Puerto Rico. I dread to see him go. Should I forget him or be happy while I CAN? How much is right or wrong when two people love each other? — M.S.

Dear M.S.: The difference in age is negligible. But how much is right — or wrong — depends upon what all this is doing to you. Only you can judge that. It's the inner motivation, rather than the outward act, which is important.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am living a nightmare. My husband is dead and my small baby and I live with my husband's parents. They love the baby in their proud, cold way, but hate me. They are trying to get rid of me so they can have the baby to themselves. They would stop at nothing. I can't let them ruin my child's life as they ruined my husband's. At night I walk the streets with my baby in my arms, wondering if it wouldn't be better to jump off the viaduct. — Penniless and Desperate.

Dear Penniless and Desperate: Don't give up! No matter how difficult your plight, there is constructive solution to every problem. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for advice.

Dear Dorothy Dix: We are two bachelors age 42, and over six feet tall; are in business where we have no social contacts. Could you tell us of active dance or social clubs of single folks in thirties or forties? (No square or folk dance groups, please.) Neither of us has any use for drinking or smoking, so it's rough trying to meet tall girls of our type.

Should any reader interested in our type communicate with the paper and wish to write us, you have our permission to reveal the address if you wish—Singleseaters.

Dear Singleseaters: Sorry! We don't run a Lonely Hearts Exchange. But I am sending some leaflets which may be of use.

Easy to Get Information About U. S.

By C. YATES MCDANIEL

WASHINGTON (AP) — North America's air space has been free from known intrusions due to a combination of reasons, among which the most significant is the ease with which the Soviets can obtain information without any risk of an international incident.

Several times during the cold war period, U.S. defenses have been alerted by reports of aerial activity. But each time the tempo of the unknown aircraft has been identified as American or friendly.

It is true that vapor trails over, or near, northern Canada and Alaska have led to a general belief that Russia was doing high-altitude spying. However, so far as officials here are willing to say, there has been no positive identification of these as Russian craft actually flying over the United States or Canada.

Spring Hill Honors Mrs. Arch Turner

On Saturday night, April 30, a Surprise Party was given in the Spring Hill gym in honor of Mrs. Arch Turner, who is retiring this year after 45 years in the teaching profession.

She said she was truly "Queen for a Night" with gifts galore. She was given an orchid corsage. From the school board came a gold watch, and from the faculty and other school personnel, a silver platter. She also received many gifts from individual classes and former students.

Mrs. Turner taught her first school at Rocky Mount, and she has taught at Spring Hill for 38 years. Also having felt her wise guidance were classes in schools at Centerville, Pine Ridge, Liberty Hill, Battlefield and Midway. Some of these schools have not been consolidated with others.

In the course of 45 years Mrs. Turner has taught every one of the 12 elementary and high school grades. In more recent years she has taught ninth grade math and has been high school librarian.

Born in Benton County, Mississippi, Mrs. Turner moved to Texas at an early age and has lived in Arkansas since 1913. She has taught two generations of many families, and she reports that many of her "children" are now teachers, preachers, and nurses.

Plane Skids in Safety, 109 Aboard

NEW YORK (AP) — The landing gear of a Trans World Airlines jet with 109 persons aboard collapsed in landing Monday, and the four-engine plane skidded 2,000 feet amid smoke and flames. No one was seriously hurt.

The 100 passengers and nine crew members scrambled through emergency exits and down escape slides moments after the 514-million-dollar Boeing 707 ground to a halt on its belly.

Capt. Henry Campbell of Los Angeles, pilot of the nonstop flight from Los Angeles, said he was coming in for a normal landing when the nose wheel collapsed.

Not After Experience, Just Money

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP) — "It isn't the experience I'm after. It's the money."

So says South Africa's Harold Henning, a determined follower of the path trodden by his countrymen Bobby Locke and Gary Player and by Australia's Peter Thomson on the U.S. professional golf circuit.

Henning is one of nearly a dozen foreign pros to hit the American tournaments this year, a survey revealed today. Its biggest invasion in recent memory and with a few exceptions the visitors are looking for experience more than cash.

In addition to Player and Henning, South Africa has sent Bob Verwe, Player brother-in-law; Retief Goosen, Denis Hutchinson and Bryan Reelofz. Thomson, who pioneered the international tour back in 1951, delayed his American debut this year. But Australian veteran Kel Nagle has been here for some time. Norm Von Nida was a visitor for a while and Bruce Crampton and Len Woodward were more recent arrivals from Australia.

Toss in England's Harry Westman, who made the winter tour, and three or four frequent visitors from Canada and it makes a sizeable delegation.

It was Locke, of course, who showed the way when he carried more than $24,000 on the American tour in 1947. Thomson didn't get much but experience on this bling Pirates dropped their fourth few brushes with the tough American competition, he went on to win the British Open four times.

Plane Going Over Russia Old Stuff

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has acknowledged sending spy planes inside the Soviet Union occasionally as part of "extensive aerial surveillance" designed to protect the Free World from surprise attack.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter reported the practice Monday after briefing congressional leaders on developments since the Soviet claim to have shot down a U.S. plane deep in Soviet territory May 1.

"The United States has not and does not share this responsibility," Herter said, leaving the implication—not discouraged by the State Department—that such flights might be continued until Soviet secrecy is relaxed.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev took note Monday night of an earlier State Department statement which mentioned Soviet secrecy in explaining the May 1 flight. Khrushchev called it "a very dangerous explanation," because he said it tries to justify and does not denounce such flights.

Washington awaited an official Soviet response—not propaganda interference—to its note of last Friday asking for full facts from the Soviet inquiry into the incident.

When the U.S. Embassy in Moscow was expected to follow up by asking to see Francis G. Powers, the downed American pilot, who Khrushchev claims has confessed to a planned spy flight across the Soviet Union from Pakistan to Norway.

U.S. officials watched to see whether the Soviet boss would try to stir the incident to a crescendo—perhaps by a spectacular show such as a press conference with Powers or a public trial—and thus heighten tension to the point of wiping away chances for success at the summit parley.

Herter and Allen W. Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, reported to congressional leaders of both parties at a hurriedly called, secret briefing session Monday while Eisenhower was meeting with his top strategy group, the National Security Council.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beaver and Hardee of Hot Springs were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Josephine Carvington.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. Robbie Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Smith and Scotty of Little Rock.

Mrs. John Dewoody had as her weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Dewoody and children of Texarkana.

Crossett Firm Started by Three Men

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP)—In 1938 three men bought a block of South-east Arkansas timber land. Today the firm they started—the Crossett Co.—is a corporate giant worth 156 million dollars.

That is the price given in reports of the firm's sale to Union Bag-Camp Manufacturing Co. E.S. Crossett—for whom the firm is named—Dr. J. W. Walzak and C. W. Gates made the original timber purchase and started construction of a sawmill.

Now the Crossett Co. owns 70 per cent of the land in Ashley County and also has large holdings in neighboring Drew County and in Morehouse Parish, La.

The model town of Crossett was owned by the company until about 15 years ago, when houses and businesses were sold to individuals.

The firm still owns the Ashley, Drew and Northern Railroad Co. and Public Utilities Co., which serve Crossett.

From that first sawmill, which began cutting lumber late in 1901 has grown an industrial complex which processes 90 million feet of wood products yearly in the manufacture of lumber and wood products, paper, chemicals and other products.

And its byproducts, such as charcoal, have remained the foundation of the Crossett Co.

To assure a continuing timber supply, the firm has been a leader in reforestation projects, beginning early in the century. For many years it has planted more trees than it has cut.

Demos Plan Revision of Farm Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats may propose a return to the farm programs of the Roosevelt Truman administration to win farm votes in this year's elections.

A member of advisory committee on Democratic farm policy proposed Tuesday that the government return farm price support levels to 80 per cent of parity and impose more rigid crop controls to halt accumulation of surpluses.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Production controls and supports at these levels were the keystones of farm programs evolved under Democratic Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

The Eisenhower administration, which inherited them, has backed out of them, contending they party's national convention in Los Angeles over expansion of a productive capacity with resulting surpluses.

The committee recommendations will be laid before the Democrats' platform drafters at the away from them, contending they party's national convention in Los Angeles over expansion of a

Picture From Plane Puzzle to Experts

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. experts have deduced some significant information from the picture of a Soviet air base that Moscow claims was taken from an American spy plane.

The picture, made available for world publication by the Soviets after it had appeared in the Moscow newspaper Pravda, purports to show an airfield on which aircraft are arranged in two rows.

Specialists in the analysis of aerial photographs agreed that it was possible to get a picture as clear as the Soviet supplied photo from an aircraft flying at an altitude of from 10 to 12 miles.

The most significant fact deduced from studies of the Soviet photograph, however, is that the aircraft shown are probably obsolete TU4's the Soviet copy of the American B29 bomber that won fame in World War II.

The Soviets were known to have mass produced this type of bomber that is powered by four conventional piston engines.

The identity of these Soviet planes has led to two alternative conclusions:

1. That the Soviet picture was taken long ago; or,
2. That the Soviet air force is still maintaining a type of bomber that the United States has long since retired.

Since building the TU4's in great numbers, the Soviets moved into jet power for their bomber force. They have several hundred (turbo)prop bombers and a substantial number of Bison turbojet bombers.

American photo analysts are reasonably sure that the craft shown in the Pravda picture are not either of the two jet powered Soviet bombers.

Woman Gets Free From Gunman

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (AP) — A plucky woman hostage broke up a 20-hour siege Tuesday when she grabbed two pistols from a Bible-reading gunman and broke for police lines.

The gunman, James W. Owens, 34, raced after the woman and was wrestled to the ground by four of the 50 policemen who surrounded the house Owens commandeered Monday.

Owens' hostage was Laverne Owens, a woman who was with Owens when he broke into the house.

During the long standoff, Owens alternately fingered his weapons, threatened officers, read from a Bible and muttered prayers. He finally dozed and Miss Midgett broke from the house, a pistol in each hand.

Swim Pool Opens Here Saturday

The Hope Municipal Swimming Pool will open Saturday, May 14 and remain open on weekends only until the end of the school term. Saturday hours will be 1:30 to 8 p.m. and Sunday will be 2 to 6 p.m.

Because of the inability to predict weekend weather, no season passes will be sold until the pool opens on a full time schedule. Regular daily admittance prices will be charged until school is out.

The pool has had a complete face lifting and will be more attractive for swimming this season.

On Tuesday, May 17, the Parks and Recreation Dept. will sponsor a synchronized swimming program that will be presented by the Texas Women University's Synchronized Swimming Team. This precision swimming group performs annually at every major pool in the South and are known nationally for their outstanding performances.

The group includes 25 young women who are outstanding swimmers and are majoring in various aspects of swimming and physical education. This season's tour will mark the 15th annual road trip by this team.

They perform in all phases of synchronized swimming and water ballet along with diving and comedy acts.

There will be no admission charge to the public but a collection will be taken at the show to defray the expenses of the team, since the teams expenses must be guaranteed and everyone is urged to make a small donation as the pool operates on a service to the public on a "break even" or less basis as is.

Bleachers will be set up on the south side of the pool for spectator seating, so come on out and enjoy an excellent water show Tuesday, May 17, beginning at 8 p.m.

Re-elected Mayor
LOST SPRINGS, Wyo. (AP)—Nora Wanek was re-elected mayor of Lost Springs Tuesday. It wasn't much of a surprise. Not only was she unopposed on the ballot but the community has only six residents and three of them are in her daughter's family.

Bumper and Auto of 1960 Chevrolet pickups, no traffic day after day, averages about 2,000 miles in wearing stop-and-start traffic. Mr. Harry Haller, manager of S & H Truck Leases the trucks to the reports: "We provide mileage on the trucks—gas, oil, tires—everything else—so it pays us where we stand on costs. Records show that the '60 Chevy gives us as much as 21 miles . . . with an average of 17 miles per gallon. They're our kind of trucks!" Drivers have good things to say about Chevy engines. And when talking about Chevrolet and economy, they're telling you the great that new Torosion. It's how it soaks up road vibration. Protects fragile parts to run at faster, safe speeds. Work done in a day. Drive your Chevy soon. We'll rest that one ride.
